Mr. John W. Garrett,

Dear Sir,

I am taking the liberty of sending a few exquisite Roman coins to you, every one of them an extraordinary example and a gem. Of these, the coin of Faustina, Jr. is the most remarkable as the bust faced in the opposite direction to what they usually do and of the finest possible workmanship.

I notice the ~~stater~~ of Carthage was billed you as an electrum stater, a mistake that was accidentally made. I am sending it in the parcel and allowing the original ticket to go with it. I wish to draw your attention to the fact that it is pure gold, of excessive rarity and rarely obtainable at any price.

Every one of these coins will bear close scrutiny and I hope you will be able to keep a number of them. I have a fine collection of Roman Bronze coins ^{in varying fine condition} if you would like to see them.

Expense prepaid

Yours very truly,

Henry Chapman

Dear Mr. Chapman:-

I am returning the coins sent in your last invoice with the exception of the Italian 100 Li piece for which I enclose my check which includes also the payment for the three commemorative pieces. Two of these pieces which I am returning would be very good additions to my collection, namely the Aureii of Marcia and Volusion, but I am not willing to pay such prices for them, rare as they are.

John W. Garrett, Esq.

Dear Mr. Garrett:

In a collection of Cents which I purchased recently from the Executors of the estate of W. D. Jones, I found two very rare Washingtons, Reverse, LIBERTY AND SECURITY, penny and half-penny. The penny has outside of the usual two rim border, an additional engraved border which I never saw before, and which Crosby does not give, and which he otherwise would have given, as he mentions the engraved border on the half-pennies, and it is therefore, I believe, unique with this border. It is also a most magnificent specimen, uncirculated in beautiful yellow, olive color. There is also the second piece, the half-penny, with the bust of Washington to right, and usual engraved border, but the edge has the rare inscription of BIRMINGHAM REVERSE OR SWANSEA, 1830. It is uncirculated, but as always, not struck so fully on the bust and shield. This is rather curious because the larger penny is always well struck, and they must have used a smaller and weaker press for it.

At the Miller sale I had your bid for $25, for a similar specimen with also the date 1830, and knowing it to be a great rarity went against the competitor, far over your bid, $39 for it, and he came to me after the sale and bought it from me for $50. The late Mr. Genring.

The other specimens known are not uncirculated, good to very fine. As the penny is unique and you previously wanted the half-penny, I take the liberty of sending you the two pieces on approval.

Yours very truly,

Regarding the Volusien and Marciana I only had 10% profit on these pieces. I notice your notation beside the Antonia and Agrippina referring to price at Barent sale. I paid far more for these two pieces than they brought at the sale.

I thank you very much for the regittance,

Mr. John W. Garrett.

Dear Sir:

The edition of my Monograph of the Cents of 1794, to which you subscribed, was so defectively printed in alignment, despite my having corrected it on proofs, that I determined to reprint it, and to replace the copies free of expense to the subscribers.

I offered to the printer to supply the paper, and to lose the cost of binding on those done, also transportation and labor, if he would do the composition and press work. He was then too busy to do the work and put it off for a year. I have, as we were reprinting it, revised it, inserted additional states of the dies, and have had it printed on the finest, heavy, (90 lb.) American Japan paper.

I hereby ask you to kindly return, between boards by express (at book rates) the copy previously sent you, when I will forward to you the new second revised edition, free of expense.

Yours very truly,

You will notice that I have checked the list of coins in my collection on page 29. I imagine these faint marks can easily be erased if necessary.

Dear Mr. Garrett:

I recently had brought to me by a Philadelphia merchant a very rare gold coin of Yuan Shih-Kai, of which the enclosed is a rubbing. He obtained it from an ex-official of the Chinese Government, and very few of them were struck. It is the first one that I have seen. The price is $450. Another collector told me that he considered my price very reasonable, but that he obtained one about two years ago at, I presume, a higher price.

Dear Mr. Garrett:

About ~~two~~ months ago I received a number of rubbings from an Indian correspondent and he stupidly sends them to me without a single attribution but I thought that if you would care to see any of these and would tell me the numbers, or put a check mark on them, I should be pleased to endeavor to procure them for you. I do not see any price on them either.

Numbers 6 and 10 are Venetian, of course, and numbers 39 and 44 are early Indian, 3th to 10th century, A. D. Be sure to return rubbings

Dear Sir:-

I am sorry to have kept the coins you sent me on November 12th for so long, but I have been laid up in hospital and have been unable until now to look at them. I am keeping two pieces Nos. 2 and 6 for which I enclose my check and am returning the others to you.

Dear Mr. Garrett:

Your letter enclosing check for $154. received.
This is pricing No. 2 as per invoice at $14. This should read $74. and is, I suppose, the price that should be on the tag that accompanied the coin. Possibly the top of the 7 is not very strong and might look like a one, which caused my stenographer to make this error. The coin cost me over $50.

I ask you kindly to send check for the proper amount $74., or return the coin. It is a great gem and considered by the finest Tarentine engraver. I return your check, herewith.

This makes the check total $214.

Yours very truly,

SHC:S

I am sorry to hear that you have been in the hospital,

Mr. John W. Garrett.

Dear Mr. Garrett:

I take the liberty of sending you two small Greek silver coins of much beauty. A specimen of the new drachm of Cromna. I selected this specimen out of a number as the most perfect impression. The coin has been very rare and is still rare and you will find it will soon be absorbed and I have only moderate profit on it. Also the Larissa drachm of fine style. The most beautiful head of the nymph with large lovely face.

In direct contrast I enclose a few extraordinary half cents of 1794, three of them surpass the specimens in the Alvord collection, which was a collection of the finest specimens, that came on the market within the last 20 years.

I suppose you are collecting the different dies of the half cents as well as you collect cents. The half cents are far rarer than the cents.

This specimen of No. 1 is a most desirable example as the die is in perfect condition and not cracked across the cap, as are nearly all the specimens with this reverse. Mr. Alvord's was only very good. I would not be surprised if this was the finest specimen known, with the obverse die perfect, of Gilgert No. 1

J. W. G.

1/18/24

Specimen G.5. is an extraordinary piece, Gilberts 4 specimens are only very good to fine. The G. 8. R5 though only fine is better than Alvords. Also the G. 9. R 5 is finer than the Alvord specimen and in much finer condition on the hair. G.9. R4, extremely fine orange, equal to the Alvord specimen, as it has a more beautiful lighter color.

I bought the entire collection of '94 half cents
and it is certainly an extraordinary lot.

I enclose these on approval, without your permission, as it would be very difficult for you to decide about them without having them in comparison with your own specimens.

Yours sincerely,

SHC:S

Mr. John W. Garrett
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir,

I have sent you by express prepaid to-day box containing forty-four lots of exceptional rarities, nearly all gold and I want you to pardon me for sending them at this time but the fact is, many of them I have on approval and have been holding them for so long I do not like to send them back without making an effort to sell them as as you are one of the gentlemen I hope to effect a sale with, I am sending them.

There are so few I hope you will have an opportunity to examine them prior to your departure for certainly they are worthy of it and many of them I doubt if you have ever seen before, a few are unique. The Washington New Jersey is the finest specimen of this coin known and I have the price reduced considerably as it was previously held much higher. If you do not possess a specimen I would offer it to you.

Your collection of New Jersey coins is unsurpassed but I have one that was unknown to Dr. Maris, the only specimen that has ever turned up in any state of preservation I fully believe. If you do not have an opportunity to examine them before your departure kindly leave the package with your cashier subject to my either removing it in person or otherwise as I will be in Baltimore probably the end of next week and will be glad to take it in hand.

Yours very truly,

Henry Chapman

Mr. J. W. Garrett.

Dear Sir:

I do not know whether you have returned from Europe or not, but I would like to be informed if you are at home or when you will have arrived at home.

I was looking over a want list yesterday, and I noticed some I had from you. One of them was the California 1861 first time, $50. Adams No. 11 & 12, I have just sold a fine specimen of No. 12, which is one of the rarest of the $50. 347 THOUS, but I think probably you may have obtained a specimen since I made this want list, as you did not send me a bid on the specimen in the Nygren, from which I bought for you the rare Templar Reid $5. and the Baldwin 1861 $20.

I have also your check off ^{of} Green's List Book, which you kindly did for me on April 1, 1920. Since this time I know you have purchased the Ellsworth collection or the first choice from it, and you may have obtained many other pieces. Would it be possible for you to do me the favor to bring this check book up to the present state of your collection?

I have recently purchased one great rarity in the U. S. $5. 1861 Dulong, extremely fine condition. I only have known of two other specimens and I suppose there is one at present, at Mr. Newcomb's.

J. W. G. -2-

has it not on his recent list of warts. Making in all four specimens.
It was not published until 1913 and then, by me. The price of this piece would be $250., relatively it's worth a great deal more now.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

Mr. John W. Garrett,

Dear Mr. Garrett:

I received yesterday the coins returned. Thank you for considering them. Today I received your very polite and kind letter for which I am obliged to it and am so glad that you did not feel annoyed by my sending the coins and asking for a reply.

I had brought into me and purchased an exceedingly rare Washington medal that might interest you. I know of only one specimen, in the Wm. Collection American Numismatic Society of New York. Neither I nor my brother have ever seen one before. This specimen is unique in having the frame. I describe it below:

Washington medallion, on his death. Diameter of Washington p. of time, on each of which a young of a man of white background, on each side; at left trophy of arms, with mortar and cannon balls. Inscribed on top at left, WASHINGTON. At right American, standing, wearing a helmet and holding a shield. At left hand a sword. Above GEN. GEN. WASHINGTON 1732. ON THE UNIT. STA. 1799. BORN FEBY. 1732 DIED DEC. 1799. Below, Street 111, No. 42 Astor. Seal. In an oval frame, with a small wooden frame around it, with a small original hole turned out of the wood to hold it, measuring 5/8" diameter. No. 103.

The only other specimen that I, or my brother ever of, is mentioned in our catalogue of the B. & H. collection, as an electrotype, it was bought by Mr. Baker. I learned today, this specimen in the Baker collection in the Historical Society of Peru, and it is an electrotype copy.

It was just at the time of the B. & H. sale up to 1885 that Mr. Baker compiled his work and he received a great deal of the information from us. He came to our office every morning and sat in the armchair consulting us about his notes.

No one has heretofore attributed this plaque to the artist. I now see that it is undoubtedly, to me, the work of Jean Rabin and the abbreviation of the inscription confirms it, as it is similar with those he used on the medal of 1797 Commisairon Recluse, Presidency Relinquished. Sizes 27 and 34, of the latter size we owned the original dies.

This specimen today is probably unique with the frame, which plainly shows that the medal was meant to be used as a mourning memorial plaque to be hung from the wall. Such a use would make it more liable to destruction and melting as a piece of silver.

The price of the medal with frame is $100.

Yours very truly,
